

INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

CASE: James Goad
C98-06-34908
ATTY: Shari Pearlman
INV: Mark Robertson
WITNESS: Sean Tejaratchi [REDACTED]
DATE: 7/10/98

On the above listed date I contacted Sean Tejaratchi via telephone. I identified myself to Mr. Tejaratchi and he agreed to speak with me.

Mr. Tejaratchi stated he is familiar with both Sky Ryan and James Goad. He stated he has known both of them for a number of years. Mr. Tejaratchi stated he was employed at a book store in Portland called Reading Frenzy and on two occasions was called to the store to intervene in trouble caused by Sky Ryan. On the first occasion Ms. Ryan was in the store bragging about having just beaten a woman with the handle of a hammer. Mr. Tejaratchi stated he was called to the store on this occasion because Ms. Ryan was becoming loud and acting "psychotic." On the second occasion he was called in because of trouble caused by Sky Ryan after Ms. Ryan had threatened to kill a 'Zine publisher while in Reading Frenzy. She was subsequently banned from the store for the second incident.

Mr. Tejaratchi recalled a day when Sky Ryan informed him that she had asked James Goad to hit her with the intent of claiming to be the victim of domestic violence on an application for financial aid. Per Mr. Tejaratchi's recollection Ms. Ryan felt this would enhance the amount of aid she received.

This concluded my conversation with Mr. Tejaratchi.
